FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Sitting on the Sidelines

As we head into fall, many folks in our region get excited for a new football season. Whether they're cheering on the Fisher Bunnies or the University of Illinois Fighting Illini at Memorial Stadium, the view from the sidelines can be exciting. And, if you're on the team, then the view from the sidelines can be exhilarating or gut-wrenching, depending on how your team is doing or what play you just made or flubbed.

Sometimes, though, sitting on the sidelines is less a metaphor for a watching great game or being part of a team than it is a metaphor for being left out. Many people with depression feel like they are on the sidelines of their own life – just watching things happen around them, but not fully participating. Other folks have found themselves sidelined by powers beyond their control: an important project was taken away or given to someone else; a loved-one's diagnosis puts all of the attention on them, making you feel forgotten or your needs go unmet; a decision made by others that affects you directly leaves you reeling. Sitting on the sidelines isn't always a good thing.

Sitting on the sidelines is also a bad idea when our participation is needed. If a player is injured and unable to get out on the field, then their talents and skills are missed on the team. All the team can hope is that they heal quickly and that someone else can fill the gap in the meantime. Now, if that player is simply feeling lazy or doesn't feel like playing, that's a different story. I'm guessing that the coach would have some choice words!

In life, we can be sidelined by others or by circumstances. We can also sideline ourselves. How often have we thought, "I don't want to get involved." or "That's not my problem."? Sometimes that's true; it's not our problem or none of our business. Sometimes, though, our participation is necessary despite our reluctance. The challenge is figuring out the difference.

Recently, the state of Florida decided new standards for the teaching of American History, particularly with regard to the teaching of African American history, the history of slavery, the effects of the institution of slavery, and ongoing racial injustice, prejudice, and inequity. It may surprise you to learn that a few African Americans were included on the committee that made these decisions. It may not surprise you, however, to discover that their contributions to the discussion were ignored, belittled, or sidelined.

Although this made the news, it is sadly not new. The sidelining of people of color, of parts of history that make some white folks uncomfortable, and even current realities faced by a large percentage of the American population has been practiced for decades.

Which means that we can't sit on the sidelines of this issue. We can't leave this as "someone else's problem" or say we don't want to get involved. For the sake of justice, the sake of our country's future, the sake of what is right and good and Christ-like and loving, we need to stand up and speak up. To not allow, to the best of our abilities, the voices of BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) people to be silenced or sidelined – for any reason! – but especially when it comes to our collective history.

It's clear that Jesus was someone who stood up for sidelined people. Again and again, he spoke up, got involved, invited in, advocated for. In Jesus' ministry, he continuously and effectively brought sidelined people into the center of the field, holding them up as examples of faith, images of the kingdom of God, and part of God's family: Zacchaeus, the Canaanite woman, children, Mary Magdalene, Matthew and Peter and Thomas, Paul(!), and many others besides.

As followers of this same Jesus, it is my hope that we never sideline others. And that when we do, we confess and repent and seek reconciliation and a better path forward. It's also my prayer that we won't sit on the sidelines ourselves - that we'll be actively engaged in the work of justice, in the life of this congregation and in what God is doing in this place. After all, we're not on the team to sit on the bench!

And, from day to day, whether we're actively engaged in God's work or resting on the sidelines between plays, we will have a front row seat to what the Holy Spirit is doing. And that, my friends, is exciting indeed!

With Spirit,
Pr Lynette Chapman

By the way: Getting off the sidelines to advocate for others often starts with learning. There are lots of beautiful ways that you can start educating yourself. Our local library offers a great selection of books about African American history, anti-racism, and white supremacy. There you can find lots of great books, from Ibram X. Kendi's How to Be an Antiracist to Layla Saad's Me and White Supremacy and Robin DiAngelo's White Fragility. I also personally recommend two books also available in our church library: James H. Cone's The Cross and the Lynching Tree and Lenny Duncan's Dear Church. We also have copies of the 1619 Project articles that were first published in the New York Times.

Summer Camp and Sunday School songs will be part of this relaxed outdoor worship. Bring a chair, bring a friend, bring your dog! All are welcome as we sing, pray, and celebrate together.

Barbie Tuttle: With sadness, we have accepted Barbie Tuttle's resignation. Because of ongoing health concerns, Ms. Barbie is unable to continue as our Nursery person, but she is planning to continue as part of our congregation. We have been deeply blessed by her ministry among us and she will be missed in this role. However, we are grateful that she and Tom are planning to continue as part of our community.

Welcome Fenella Theodore!

We welcome Fenella as our new worship pianist and choir accompanist. She is a graduate student in piano at the University of Illinois and we are delighted that she's becoming part of our team. Please make her feel welcome!

Currently, we have three groups of kids: K-2, 3-6, and 7-12. Where is your passion?

If you would like to work with any of our groups, please talk to Deacon Jason Fisher. See page 13 of this month's Scroll for curriculum info.

With Ms. Barbie's departure, the Nursery Sub-Committee will be searching for a new Nursery Worker in the next few weeks. If you know of anyone who would like to apply for this position, please contact Amy Chamley. In the meantime, Ms. Raylynn Chapman will continue as substitute Nursery Worker alongside our wonderful volunteers.

"Thank you so much for your support of St. Andrew's! Our Chat & Chow ministry is looking for volunteers and donations to help feed students on Wednesday nights. You can donate a full meal, a main dish, ingredients for a meal, or make a donation for us to buy supplies.

We have students who are vegetarian or vegan, but don't let that stop you!

GOD'S WORK – OUR HANDS

It's always a good time to do God's Work with Our Hands, but the ELCA encourages us to focus on efforts that help others during the month of September. This year, Good Shepherd has several projects in the works for God's Work-Our Hands.

We might offer a mini project on September 10th either during or after Cross+Gen; WELCA will gather folks together on September 17th to pack school kits; on September 24th our Sunday School kids and parents will go shopping for the food pantry; and on October 5th a small group will head to Feeding Our Kids to help sort and pack bags for students.

More information about these projects will be posted on our social media and sent out in our weekly Shout Out. And whether it's during September or any month, may we always be eagerly anticipating chances to use our hand to do God's work.

JIM HACK MISSION FUND

Many of you are aware of and have been supporters of this meaningful program Jim Hack and Pastor Velma envisioned years ago. Their idea was simple and straightforward, support youth in the Cristo Rey community and provide funds to allow a student to stay in school. Pastor Velma would manage the fund and help families cover costs of school uniforms, books, tuition, supplies, and food. Estimates were $30 per month ($360/Year) would allow a student to attend school and stay on a path to a successful and productive life. Jim had a vision of promoting this program and encouraging GSLC members and friends to support the young people of Cristol Rea with an ongoing effort.

Last year you and others donated over $9,000 to this worthy cause. GSLC sends these funds to Pastor Velma quarterly the first of October, January, April, and July.

Pledges for next year should be completed by September 15th. Please email me your pledge amount or give me a call and I will be able to send Pastor Velma the first quarter allotment around October 1st. Checks should be made payable to Good Shepherd Lutheran Church with El Salvador Scholarships in the memo line.

Please feel free to forward this message to others that may be interested. Just think what a dollar a day means for our friends and fellow Christians in El Salvador. Below is the annual report from last year. Any questions give me a call.

In His Service,
Bob Clark Treasurer

Committee Members: Susan Hinrichs, Dylan Keene, Jenelle Keene, Marla Todd, Dean Olson Chair, Pastor Chapman, Deacon Fisher, Bob Clark Treasurer.

The Mission fund was established in 2013, By laws were amended in 2021 to create an additional fund named to honor Jim Hack and provide funds to support future mission trips. This year responding to a proposal to delete duplication, Council renamed the entire account The Jim Hack Mission fund. The committee may designate expenditures for any mission purpose, foreign or domestic.

The Thrivent & Habitat for Humanity partnership remains in place, but international activities were suspended during Covid. As a result, trips to El Salvador were not planned this year. The committee has discussed domestic trips in support of Lutheran Disaster Relief and is open to suggestions from members for specific ideas.

A small but dedicated group of Good Shepherd members and friends continue to support Pastor Vilma and the Cristol Ray of Hope Scholarship fund at Lutheran Church in Sana Anna. This fund is administered by Pastor Vilma and provides money to assist students and families of the church with tuition, uniforms, books, for students and food for families of the parish.

Topic: Emergency Preparedness

Emergencies can happen out of nowhere!

Our ability to survive is often determined by our level of preparation. Help take some of the unknowns out of the unknown by preparing a disaster kit today. Learn what you should include.

Basic Disaster Supplies Kit:

To assemble your kit, store items in airtight plastic bags and put your entire kit in one or two easy-to-carry containers such as plastic bins or a duffel bag. A basic emergency supply kit could include the following recommended items:

- Water (one gallon per person per day for several days, for drinking and sanitation)
- Food (at least a several-day supply of non-perishable food)
- Battery-powered or hand crank radio and a NOAA Weather Radio with tone alert
- Flashlight
- First aid kit
- Extra batteries
- Whistle (to signal for help)
- Dust mask (to help filter contaminated air)
- Plastic sheeting and duct tape (to shelter in place)
- Moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties (for personal sanitation)
- Wrench or pliers (to turn off utilities)
- Manual can opener (for food)
- Local maps
- Cell phone with chargers and a backup battery

We shouldn't have to worry here in CU since we're a university town with healthcare, but look at Maui or what about the dust storms in other parts of country.

Would love for you to share with me if you decide to do this.

PACKING LWR SCHOOL KITS

September 17,
10:15AM

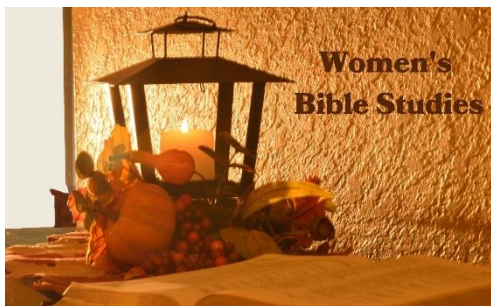

During Adult Forum
GSLC Fellowship Hall

We appreciate all of the school supplies and monetary donations that we received the past few months for LWR. One hundred and twenty school bags have graciously been sewn over the summer and are ready to be packed with supplies.

Thank you to all who sewed bags, helped put the cording in the bags, and/or donated supplies or money to this project. And a big thank you to Rebecca Nef-Heffernan for leading this effort.

We will be packing the school bags as a God's Work, Our Hands project. All church members are welcome to help. We will watch a few short videos about Lutheran World Relief (LWR) and the importance of LWR kits before we pack the school bags. If anyone wishes to assist earlier with unwrapping the school supplies, please come to the Fellowship Hall at 8 am before the church service to assist with that so we can be ready to pack the school bags later.

Please contact Nancy Holm at nlholm@comcast.net or 217-778-9270 if you have any questions.

Church COUNCIL UPDATE

We welcome Tim O'Connell (Discipleship), Joe Chamley (Resources), and Jeff Young (Resources) as new members of our church council. Dan Corkery is also stepping up to help lead the Outreach Committee.

Given the increase in interest rates, our Stewardship/Finance team decided to move half of our reserve account ($21,000) into a money market earning 5.1% and the remaining ($21,000) into a 30-day CD, which will roll over until we need it.

The YMCA will not be returning this fall to Good Shepherd because of lower enrollment and consolidation of their program at the Y building. We like sharing our building and are interested in building additional income streams for our congregation. If you know of a group looking for a place, please talk to Bob Clark or Ash Waller or any member of the council.

PUMPKIN UNLOADING Saturday, September 30, 9AM

Jason is looking for as many people as possible to help unload pumpkins for our annual Fundraiser. Donuts and drinks will be provided for the first shift (9-10:30) and Pizza will be provided for the second shift (10:30-12). Last year we had a lot of help and got done in record time. Everyone who helps will also get first dibs on a free pumpkin of their choice.

If you don't feel comfortable helping unload but would still like to help, see the sign-up sheet in the hallway at church to sign up for a shift to help sell pumpkins to our friends and neighbors this season.
